- Council resolution dated 4 December 2013

Summary of Evidence

Reports from Police do not oppose the issue of the application. Council's Liquor Licensing Inspector outlined concerns regarding the applicant's lack of recent, relevant experience working in a licensed premises. However, the Inspector noted that the applicant teaches the Licensed Controllers Qualification and has an excellent knowledge of the Act. Based on the information provided to me on the complete files, I have determined not to convene a public hearing.
