Part A

INTRODUCTION

Part A of this Delegations Register contains introductory and background information for the reader. Of particular note are the principles and general terms and conditions that apply to all Horowhenua District Council delegations.

1.1 Purpose

This document is the Delegations Register for the Horowhenua District Council ('the Delegations Register').

The purpose of the Delegations Register is to set out the Horowhenua District Council's ('the Council') policies, procedures and delegations relating to decision making when giving effect to its statutory duties, responsibilities and powers.

1.2 Background

1.2.1 Definition of Delegation

Delegation is the conveying of a duty or power to act to another person, including the authority that the person making the decision would themselves have had in carrying out that duty or exercising that power.

For the purposes of administrative efficiency and expediency in the conducting of its day-to-day business, the Council delegates certain statutory duties, responsibilities and powers to its standing committees, subcommittees, members or staff. Likewise the Chief Executive delegates certain duties and responsibilities to a subordinate level. These delegations are a necessary operational requirement to achieve best use of the abilities of elected representatives and officers and to promote effective and expeditious decision-making. Delegations seek to avoid administrative delays and inefficiencies.

1.2.2 The Legal Basis

Council's authority to delegate to its standing committees, subcommittees, members or staff is principally derived from Schedule 7, Clause 32 of the Local Government Act 2002 (LGA).

Schedule 7 Clause 32 of the LGA states that:

"Unless expressly provided otherwise in this Act, or in any other Act, for the purposes of efficiency and effectiveness in the conduct of the local authority's business, a local authority may delegate to a committee or other subordinate decision-making body, community board, or member or officer of the local authority any of its responsibilities, duties, or powers except

- (a) The power to make a rate; or
- (b) The power to make a bylaw; or
- (c) The power to borrow money, or purchase or dispose of assets, other than in accordance with the Long-Term Plan; or
- (d) The power to adopt a long-term plan, annual plan, or annual report; or
- (e) The power to appoint a chief executive; or
- (f) The power to adopt policies required to be adopted and consulted on under this Act in association with the long-term plan or developed for the purpose of the local governance statement; or
- (g) The power to adopt a remuneration and employment policy.

Other statutes¹ also confer or limit the ability for the Council to delegate decision-making powers and duties. For instance, Section 34 of the Resource Management Act 1991 restricts the delegation of certain plan approval functions to other than the Council. While the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 provides for delegations under section 42 and 43 of that Act, a response to recommendations made to the Council by the Ombudsman (section 32) may not be delegated.

Authority and responsibility are inseparable. Those with responsibility for a task or function should always have the authority to carry it out effectively. It should be noted that no delegation relieves the local authority, member, or officer of the liability or legal responsibility to perform or ensure performance of any function or duty.

Delegates should willingly accept authority and responsibility for decision-making in the certain knowledge that their decisions, if made in a full, fair, and objective manner, will not be interfered with. The act of delegating involves mutual trust and respect without which the efficiency and effectiveness of the Council would be at risk.

1.2.3 Principles, Terms and Conditions

Unless a delegation in this Register states otherwise, the delegation is derived from the Council. The Council or Chief Executive in their determination as to duties, responsibilities and powers to be delegated will have regard to the principles outlined in Table 1 (below).

In the exercise of any delegation, the delegate (i.e. the person given the delegation) must comply with the general terms and conditions, which are also identified in Table 1. In addition to the general terms and conditions, the delegate must also comply with any additional terms and conditions that might apply to specific delegations.

The laws relating to local government generally recognise that the decisions of a delegate may be reviewed or appealed to the delegator who may confirm, vary, overrule, or substitute any decision although there are exceptions such as where a decision is made and other review remedies are available (e.g. appeal to a court or tribunal).

¹ See Building Act 2004 - Section 232; Civil Defence Emergency Management Act 2002 - Section 12; Impounding Act 1955 - Section 63; Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 - Sections 42, 43; Privacy Act 1993 - Sections 124, 125; Public Bodies Contracts Act 1959 - Section 4; Resource Management Act 1991 - Section 34A(3); Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act; Fencing of Swimming Pools Act 1987, Section 12 repealed 1 January 2017 by section 19 of the Building (Pools) Amendment Act 2016.

Table 1: Principles, Terms and Conditions

Principles
Because the business to be transacted by the Council is diverse and wide-ranging, delegations are necessary to ensure the efficient, effective, and timely delivery of services to the communities it represents. Delegations made to Council Officers have generally been made to the lowest level of competence commensurate with the degree of responsibility and difficulty involved in the undertaking of the delegation. Where delegations have been made to the Chief Executive and it is noted that the Chief Executive can further delegate, the Chief Executive will delegate those responsibilities, duties and powers having regard to the degree of responsibility and difficulty involved in the undertaking of the delegation. Wherever possible, delegations to officers and employees will and have been made on a wide basis to promote the most effective and efficient implementation and delivery of Council's policies and objectives.
General Terms and Conditions
No delegations shall limit the power of Council or other delegator to exercise a function, duty or power in substitution for a delegate. Delegations must be precise and in writing in order to protect both the Council and the delegate. In the exercise of any delegation, the delegate will ensure they act in accordance with: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Any binding statutory authority (in relation to each delegation, relevant sections of the Act will be identified); and 2. Any relevant Council policy or procedural documents (including reporting and recording requirements). In relation to delegations to officer level, every delegation will be to a stated officer and will be exercised in relation to the duties of their position as identified in their Position Description or when an officer has been appointed in an acting capacity. Decisions, other than on minor or routine matters, made under delegated authority will be reported to the Council or a relevant Committee. For the avoidance of doubt, supervisors shall have the same powers of delegation as subordinate staff, unless the exercise of such delegation requires, by law, a particular qualification or registration. Except as otherwise provided in this Delegations Register, the Local Government Act 2002, Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 or any other enactment, a delegation once made cannot be further sub-delegated. The Council may, at any time, revoke, suspend for a period, or amend the terms of conditions in relation to any delegation it has made. Where this occurs, it will be recorded by resolution of Council. The Chief Executive may revoke or suspend for a period, or amend the terms and conditions in relation to:

1. Any delegation to subordinates that they have made; and
2. Any delegation to the Chief Executive that Council has revoked or suspended.

Staff will not exercise delegated authority in cases of uncertainty or where it would be desirable that policy direction be given. There are also circumstances where staff will be required to seek peer review prior to exercising delegated authority, in which case supervisors will make this known.

All staff decisions made under delegated authority should clearly contain an appropriate endorsement e.g. 'made under delegated authority'. Where a delegation exists to make a decision on behalf of Council, the delegate has all the necessary powers of Council to effect that decision, including any related transitional powers prescribed by statute.

The delegations to staff, if required by any enactment, are also made through the Chief Executive Officer by virtue of inclusion in this Register.

1.2.4 Term of Delegation

The Delegations Register will be reviewed annually and unless any delegation is expressed to be for a definable period it will continue until revoked by the delegator or the Council, or withdrawn by operation of law.

1.2.5 Delegation to Office

Unless a contrary intention is indicated every delegation will be to a stated office or position and not to an individual or the membership of a group in their personal capacities. In every case of this type the delegation will survive any change in the occupier of any such office.

1.3 Structure

The Delegations Register is structured in four parts.

Part A of the Delegations Register presents introductory and background information for the Delegations Register.

Part B of the Delegations Register contains general administrative delegations relating to employment matters, the use of the Common Seal, the making of submissions on behalf of council, and the release of information. Part B has five sections.

Part C of the Delegations Register contains legal and financial delegations. Part C has four sections.

Part D of the Delegations Register contains delegations (not already addressed) relating to the Council's regulatory functions, duties and powers under various statutes. Part D has four sections.
